

The Green Emperor of the East and the West – Paul Elvere DELSART

I am Paul Elvere DELSART, also known as Henry Harper, the Green Emperor of the East and the West. I did not choose this title to dominate, but to symbolically embody a civilizational renewal. Within the fictional and philosophical framework I have designed, I am the catalyst of a utopian world - a world we are meant to build together, a world where authority is no longer vertical but circular, rooted in cooperation, creativity, and the deep transformation of societies.

I am a social engineer, a writer of social fiction, a systems designer, a strategist, and a multidisciplinary thinker. My program, EL4DEV, is a living creation. Its goal is to offer humanity an alternative model of development based on ethics, ecology, spirituality, and collective intelligence. My empire is not a conventional political structure; it is a transnational narrative framework, an emerging collective consciousness, which I have named the EL4DEV Confederation - an empire that unites people beyond borders through both symbolic and real-world projects.

I have created tangible tools to bring this vision to life: educational and tourist cities that I call LE PAILLON SOURCE, vegetal infrastructures known as Vegetal Calderas, Societal Economic Interest Groups, an intelligent information system – the Big Smart Data EL4DEV - and an alternative diplomacy, Societal Diplomacy. Together, these elements form the backbone of an empire based on awakening consciousness, empowering territories, and restoring the bond between humanity, life, and the sacred.

By proclaiming myself the Green Emperor of the East and the West, I intended to craft a strong narrative figure - one of a peaceful builder, a guide, an initiator. My role is not to impose but to open the way. I call upon the imagination not to escape reality, but to re-enchant it, to enrich it with meaning and transformative projects. The Templar Commanderies of the 21st century that I envision are not bastions of power, but places of learning, ecological regeneration, and intercultural dialogue. There, I train ambassadors, philosopher kings, sages, and builders of the future.

Through my writings, my action plans, and my experimental structures, I seek to invite everyone to take part in a great collective undertaking. I aim to blur the line between fiction and reality so that the Live Action Role Playing game becomes a driver of change. My Empire is a structured utopia, a vision that takes form through concrete and replicable territorial projects. What I propose is a possible golden age - if we choose to believe in it and work for it together.

I am an emperor of intuition, of societal strategy, and of foresight. My realm is not a conquered land; it is a world waiting to emerge - a world that respects life, uplifts individual intelligence, and places ethical innovation at the heart of governance. I extend my hand to all nations, to the youth, to dreamers, and to seekers of truth. Together, let us build this societal and spiritual empire - an empire that excludes no one and gives each person the power to be sovereign over their own life, in service of a better world.
